About the Event

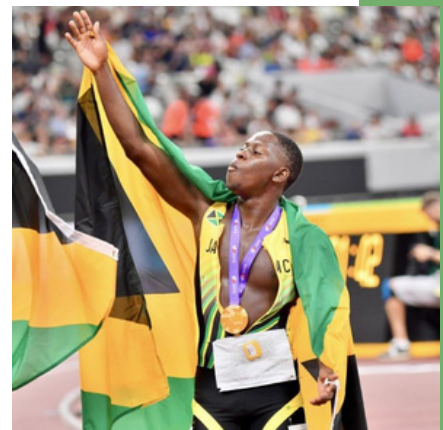

Jamaica is back on top. Numero Uno.

On February 21, 2026, World 100m Champion, Oblique Seville, will make his first public appearance in the United States, right here in South Florida, at Markham Park, as part of Calabar Alumni Florida's fundraiser, Green and Blackness: Day

Experience presented by Calabar Alumni Florida. This lively outdoor daytime celebration for the Jamaican diaspora, set in South Florida's cool spring breeze, will run from Noon to 6 PM. Part day fete, part CBar-B-Q and cookout, it's a day of friends, food, fun, and culture with sweet reggae and dancehall selections, authentic Jamaican flavors and drinks.

Come hear the Guest of Honor, Oblique Seville, as he shares how he faced the world and came out on top.

Come link up, celebrate greatness, and share the pride. 🇯🇲

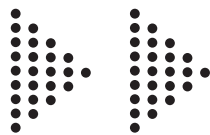

Audience & Reach

Interest and excitement are swiftly growing—not just in South Florida, but also in significant diaspora hubs along the East Coast. Members of the Jamaican diaspora from Maryland, the Washington, D.C. metropolitan area, and New York City are already arranging their attendance.

Why Sponsor?

This is more than a sponsorship—it is a rare opportunity to align your brand with:

- A reigning world champion at the peak of global recognition
- Strengthen loyalty among the Caribbean diaspora, a key driver of cross-border commerce
- Values like excellence, courage, and a drive to win
- A community that is proud of its culture, active in the economy, and appreciates brands that truly invest in excellence, community, and legacy
